Nine-Month Phase)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING SCHEDULING
TELECONFERENCE TO ADDRESS
TREATMENT OF CONFIDENTIAL DATA

By electronic mail transmission to the service list dated September 20, 2004, counsel for MCI WorldCom Network Services, Inc. (MCI) sought an order from the administrative law judge (ALJ) allowing parties to the California Triennial Review Order (TRO) proceeding to use confidential information subject to protection of the California TRO Protective Order in their comments on the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) TRO Remand Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM). MCI sought permission under the condition that such information, to the extent used by any party in its FCC TRO Remand comments, would be treated as confidential under the terms of the FCC's TRO Remand Protective Order, attached to that email.

MCI requested that a conference call be scheduled by the ALJ to address this matter and then an appropriate order be issued. MCI indicates that it has made a diligent effort to resolve this matter without the need for intervention by the ALJ, but has been unable to secure complete, clear and express agreement on this issue from all CLECs and ILECs that submitted confidential information subject to protection of the California TRO Protective Order.

Accordingly, this ruling serves notice that a teleconference call is scheduled for Friday, September 24, 2004 at 10 a.m. (Pacific Time) to provide an opportunity for parties to be heard concerning the treatment of confidential data that parties seek to provide to the FCC pursuant to its NPRM, as discussed in MCI's above-referenced email.

The following audio access information is provided for the use of those intending to participate in the Friday conference call:

Toll Free Number:	888-549-5357
Vnet Number:	857-0613

IT IS RULED that a teleconference call is scheduled for Friday, September 24, 2004 at 10 a.m., Pacific Time for purposes of addressing issues relating to treatment of confidential information, as outlined above.

Dated September 22, 2004, at San Francisco, California.
